EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Jeanette on 4-13-2004. During the interview, the examiner suggested the deletion of method claims 37-38, 40-41, 43-44 without prejudice to filing of divisional applications, and amending claims 32, 35 to be consistent with the amended definition of Y to place the application in conditions for allowance.

The application has been amended as follows:

- a. Cancel claims 37-38, 40-41, 43-44 without prejudice to filing of divisional applications.
- b. Claim 32, definition of R8, (c), replace 'nitrogen, sulfur or oxygen atoms' with -- nitrogen atom --.
- c. Claim 35, definition of R8, (c), replace 'nitrogen, sulfur or oxygen atoms' with
-- nitrogen atom --.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 32-36, 39, 42, 45 are allowed.

The amendment has obviated the 112 first and second paragraph rejection.

The closest art is Afonso (5801175) wherein a tricyclic compound useful as an inhibitor of farnesyl protein transferase is described (columns 1-6; column 135, example 246). The prior art examples are all directed to piperazinyl compounds. The instant compound is a piperidinyl compound having a nitrogen containing heterocyclic ring further substituted with an imidazolyl or pyridinyl containing moiety attached to the carbonyl on the piperidinyl ring. The closest prior art compound, example 246, is a piperazinyl compound, which further differs from the instant in the content of the R2 moiety on the piperazinyl ring. Motivation to modify the prior art compound to arrive at the instant invention via multiple changes is lacking.

3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
